Five lives, one city... the fate of a nation.

From the metropolis of Khartoum five Sudanese characters: a civil servant, a tea lady, a resistance committee volunteer, and two street boys all in search of freedom, have their stories unexpectedly woven together through animated dreams, street revolutions and a civil war.

Film screening in collaboration with the Human Rights Film Festival Lugano

An event organized by the International Relations and Study Abroad Service and the Equal Opportunities Service

The screening will be followed by a panel discussion (Italian and English), moderated by Dr. phil. Vega Tescari, USI.

Panellists:

Prof. Jolanta Drzewiecka, USI
Prof. Kevin Ben Lee, USI

A small aperitif will follow, in collaboration with Umamy.
