

Stand for Afghanistan

STAND for AFGHANISTAN

Afghanistan's Current Situation: A Focus on Educational Restrictions and Challenges

Info Session

10 May Auditorium
17.30

Contact
relint@usi.ch
Registration required

Parwiz Mosamim

Afghan journalist and assistant PhD student within USI's Institute of Communication and Public Policy, will speak about the current restrictions on Afghanistan's educational system, sharing also his educational experience in Afghanistan, Indonesia and Switzerland.

Afghanistan under the Taliban: No girls in high schools, no women in government decision-making positions. Where have all the women gone?

Round table

14 May
(In case of bad weather:
15 May)
Room A11
Red Building
17.30

A round table discussion with Parwiz Mosamim, Afghan journalist and currently working as an assistant PhD student in the Institute of Communication and Public Policy, Prof. Jean-Patrick Villeneuve and Prof. Jolanta Drzewiecka, associate professors at USI, and Heela Najibullah, PhD Candidate in Intergenerational Narratives of Afghan Conflict (Religious Studies of Faculty of Theology), University of Zurich.

Università
della Svizzera
italiana